FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

D&N ELECTRIC ADDS NEW PROJECT MANAGER TO ITS TEAM

Ken Mabe joins D&N Electric on project for the U S Army Corps of Engineers.

July 2010 –East Point, Georgia

D&N Electric Company announces the addition of Ken Mabe to its management team on the 5th Infantry Brigade/ Battalion Headquarters, a design/ build project with Mortenson as General Contractor. As Project Manager, Mabe will be responsible for all day-to-day coordination on the project site to achieve cost, time and client satisfaction goals.

Mabe joined the company in May 2010. He brings more than twenty years experience in Industrial and Commercial projects in all management roles from Superintendent to Project Manager. Mabe holds a Master Electrical Contractors License in Allen, Bartholomew, Huntington, Madison, Marion, and St. Joseph Counties in Indiana held since 1991. He enjoys playing golf and basketball in his downtime and is very involved with his church and the Knights of Columbus.

“I have known Ken Mabe for many years and he personifies what D & N Electric is all about,” says Robert Starr, D&N Electric’s Vice President and General Manager. “His perspective from the field as well as the office makes him an ideal team-builder within our organization – a real impact player.”

About D&N Electric Company

D&N Electric Company, headquartered in East Point, Georgia, has been in operation since 1970. Ranked 4th in Georgia’s Small Mid-market Fast 40 in 2009 by Georgia Trend magazine, D&N Electric Company is thriving in spite of a struggling economy.
